

REMARKS

Entry of this Amendment in accordance with the provisions of 37 CFR § 1.116 is respectfully requested.

This Amendment is in response to the Final Office Action dated May 4, 2004. Appreciation is expressed to the Examiner for the allowance of a number of claims and the indication of allowable subject matter in further claims.

By the present Amendment, rejected claims 1 and 2 have been cancelled, independent claim 13 has been rewritten to incorporate the subject matter of allowable claim 19 (claim 19 correspondingly being canceled), the substance of claims 1 and 2 has been written into claim 3, the substance of claim 1 has been rewritten into claims 16, 21, 24 and 33, and the substance of claim 13 has been written into claim 23. By virtue of this, the claims indicated as having allowable subject matter have either been rewritten into independent form or have been incorporated into their respective parent claims, thus placing all of the remaining claims in condition for allowance. Accordingly, entry of this Amendment for purposes of placing the application in condition for allowance is respectfully requested.

It is noted that the cancellation of claims 1 and 2 and the further amending of claim 13 is done without the prejudice to the Applicants' right to precede with filing a Continuation application directed to the subject matter of these broader claims.

Entry of this Amendment is respectfully requested, notwithstanding the finality of the Office Action. With regard to this, it is noted that the present Amendment simply adopts suggestions of the Examiner for placing claims in condition for allowance. Under the provision of 37 CFR § 1.116, entry of an amendment after final rejection is appropriate, if the purpose of the amendment is to follow the Examiner's suggestions for obtaining allowance of the claims. Therefore, entry of this Amendment in accordance with the provisions of 37 CFR § 1.116 is respectfully requested.

These corrections are for [purposes of correcting minor informalities noted in reviewing the application.
